

BOZAR

A BEAUTIFUL VENUE FOR CORPORATE EVENTS AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

The Centre for Fine Arts in Brussels, conceived and designed by architect Victor Horta in the 1920's, is a beautiful venue for corporate events and networking opportunities. It is an internationally high ranked, dynamic art centre that welcomes over a million visitors each year. It is ideally situated in the heart of Brussels, Belgium; host nation to the European institutions.

It contains an exhibition surface area of more than 4,000m² (all recently renovated and complying with international standards of hygrometry), a magnificent concert hall (Henry Le Boeuf Hall - 2,200 seats), the Victor Horta Hall (800 m²), the Chamber Music Room (480 seats), the Studio (212 seats), three flexible, multi-purpose Terarken rooms (accommodating up to 750 people), and a large number of lounges and reception rooms which can be used for the organisation of events, seminars and public relations activities.
